Officials and Citizens Must Act in Harmony

In his talk to the October term of the Marshall county grand jury Monday, Circuit Judge Joe L. Price, of Paducah, praised the record of the probation law and severely struck at gambling and immorality prevalent in Marshall county as the result of a large influx of workers connected with the Gilbertsville dam.

Judge Price told the grand jury that they might as well face the conditions as they exist.

"When good wages are being paid on projects of this kind there is always an influx of gambling and immorality. I understand that a citizens committee has already held several meetings and are planning to cooperate with the local officials to put down these conditions that will get worse as time goes on unless something is done. Officers alone cannot better conditions and neither can the citizens alone. A healthy cooperation between the two forces will mean success. Almost intolerable conditions will exist before the dam is completed, a fact that should be known now, unless the public and officials act in harmony," Judge Price stated.

In praising the probation law Judge Price said:

"The probation law has been operated very successfully in this state. Only one out of four have violated their probation in this district, the many citizens believe the probation law to be a failure because so much newspaper publicity is given violators of the law. At the same time it would be an injustice to make a news item stating that the other three out of the four probated had kept within the law."

"An offender is under greater obligation to his friends than he is to the court and for this reason the probation law is proving quite successful," Judge Price added.

"The Eddyville penitentiary is overcrowded today. There are twice as many there as there was originally provided for and prison is a bad place to correct lawlessness though it is the only thing to stop those who consistently break the law," Judge Price said. Strong emphasis on reform and the fact state legislature had granted the courts more freedom in granting probations and fixing the term of probation.

Judge Price praised Marshall county as having an enviable record as a law abiding county.

In his grand jury talk he also placed special emphasis on the danger of drunken driving and pointed out that an "automobile in the hands of a drunk person is a dangerous instrument."

Following is the work of the court the past three days: Luke Gordon, charged with forging a check for $6.50 on his brother, county court clerk Elwood Gordon, was sentenced to two years in the Eddyville penitentiary after entering a plea of guilty.

Traut McDermott, charged with rape, was acquitted.

Clifton Washburn was given a two year probated sentence after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of stealing an automobile. He was on a three year probation from the State of Michigan.

Wednesday was spent in calling the equity docket and entering civil docket orders.

FIRE THREATENS FOUR BUILDINGS WEDNESDAY NITE

Kerosene Stove Explodes in Daisy Lunchroom Here

A kerosene stove explosion in the Daisy Kozzy Lunch here at 6 p. m. Wednesday caused a fire that threatened for a few minutes to burn several buildings had not local firemen played water on the flames when the fire began. The lunchroom is located directly across the street from the fire station.

The Houser and Houser Poolroom, in the same building and separated only by a thin partition, suffered smoke and water damage. The Benton Theatre was filled with smoke and a store room in the rear of Walker and Whitehead was damaged by water and smoke. Mr. Whitehead also reported smoke damage of a quantity of ladies ready to wear. The Watkins Products store operated by Rolfe Cranson was also smoke damaged.

Great clouds of black smoke belched from the lunchroom and for a few moments it looked as though the fire would engulf other buildings. A hose placed at a second story rear window of the Benton Theatre quickly brought the fire under control as well as a hose line through the Walker and Whitehead store which kept flames from making any headway in the buildings on that side of court square.

No estimate had been placed on the damage Thursday morning.

Rodes K. Myers Says Democratic Harmony Is Good

RODES K. MYERS

Rodes K. Myers, Democrat, is candidate for Lt. Governor, told an audience in the courtroom here Tuesday afternoon that "more harmony existed in the Democratic party now than there has in 20 years."

He said the friendly hand clasp between Senator Barkley and Senator A. B. Chandler did more to unite party feeling among the Democrats than any other one thing.

Myers listed the achievements of the Democratic national administration and said the cost has been cheap because it saved the nation. He pointed out that the past Democratic state administration spent $2,000,000 more on schools, added free textbooks through the seventh grade and cooperated with the Federal government to the extent of $11,000,000 in granting old age assistance. The candidate for Lt. Governor also outlined the progress that had been made in the administration of the penitentiaries and reform school.

Answering charges made by King Swope, Republican nominee for governor, that the present administration had received more money than any other past administration, Myers stated that of the total income approximately $23,000,000 was immediately turned over to the Unemployment Compensation fund. He stated that the present Democratic administration was the most economical administration in 30 years.

"All the Democrats need to do to win in November is to get out the vote. Our worst fear is overconfidence. Every Democrat should take it upon himself to make a determined effort to get out the vote and support the entire Democratic ticket," he concluded.

OPEN HOUSE AT GILBERTSVILLE WELL ATTENDED

Sunday Throng of About 6,000 See Progress at Dam

Between five and six thousand persons journeyed to Gilbertsville Sunday to attend "open house" at TVA's $112,000,000 dam which is under construction. The invitation to visit the dam site was extended to people throughout this section the past week by George Jessup, project manager. Cars bearing license plates from a number of surrounding counties and states indicated that much interest is being shown in the progress of TVA's Kentucky dam.

Visitors were shown operations on the Gilbertsville side and crossed the Tennessee river on the cat-walk by the side of the Illinois Central railroad bridge and viewed more extensive construction progress on the Livingston county shore where excavation is now underway for the dam's navigation locks.

Various department heads assisted Mr. Jessup in the hospitality of the "open house" where many people learned from first hand information just how TVA build their big dams. Trips were taken through the administration building, the workers cottages mess hall and by the big material warehouses.

The day was ideal in every respect and a number of people expressed their pleasure at the opportunity of viewing the operations.

NELSON'S DRUG STORE DAMAGED BY NIGHT FIRE

Fire, believed to have been caused from defective wiring, caused an estimated $1,500 damage to the interior of the Nelson Drug store here late Monday night. The blaze started in a shelf at the rear of the soda fountain and burned a portion of the fixtures around it. The heat was so intense that much of the shelving, glass cases and stock was damaged.

A. A. (Pont) Nelson, proprietor, said that the loss was covered by insurance.

To add to his troubles, thieves broke into the store sometime Sunday night and were reported to have taken approximately $500 in cash and the contents of a cigarette machine.

To Award Merit Certificates for Building up Soil

A Certificate of Merit will be issued to any farmer in Marshall county who meets certain requirements in soil building in 1939, says J. H. Miller, assistant county agent. One of them is that 100% of all plowed land be protected by cover crops except overflow land and home garden.

Any person in the county that has seeded all of his plowed land should report it to the County Agent's office so that their record may be reviewed by the committee to determine the eligibility of any one to receive the Certificate of Merit.

Safetygrams

This is the time of the year when windshield equipment is necessary for the proper vision.

Late in the afternoon of
one day a short time ago,
while we were riding with a friend we ran into considerable fog and rain. The windshield wipers were not in working order, and as a result we had very poor vision.

We shall soon have fall weather which brings fog and rain, and in some sections sleet. Get your car tuned up for winter driving, and when you do so, do not fail to check your windshield equipment.

It's smart to drive carefully!

THE FARM AND HOME

In culling pullets, keep those with broad, deep heads;
bright, prominent eyes; long,
deep, rectangular bodies;
strong, parallel legs; stylish carriage and active disposition. Sell those with long, slim heads; dull, sunken
eyes, and short, shallow bodies.

A dairy cattle authority
says that a Jersey heifer should weigh 250 pounds when 6 months old; a Holstein heifer, 365 pounds; Guernsey,
267 pounds, and Ayrshire,
287 pounds. These weights are considered the minimum
for good growth.

Old Newspaper Clipping
Credits Letter to Christ

Mrs. B. F. Norwood, of Benton Route 4, is the owner of an old newspaper clipping
from the St. Louis Globe Democrat which purports to print a letter that was written by Christ. According to the story, or legend, the primal letter was found sometime in the early days of Christianity, by a child. In this letter was an injunction that it should be "published"
to the world by whoever found it, together with the statement that misfortune
and bad luck would follow
the person having possession of it in the event that it was not given publicly. There is likewise a promise that whoever may have a copy of this letter in his or her possession will prosper and be followed by good fortune. The promise and prediction seem to have had such an effect on so many persons, that the spread of the letter at that time, about 75 years ago, resulted in the famous "chain prayer" that swept over this country and England about a century ago.

No Tuning Fork Used
At Singing Here in 17 Yrs.

Contrary to most popular opinion, there is no tuning fork used at the annual Old Southern Harmony Singing
here in May. A writer of a column in the Courier-Journal
the past Sunday gave reference to the famous Benton singing meet and said in part that a tuning fork was used. Duke Nichols, one of the Old Southern Harmony
leaders, told me this week that it has been at least 17 years since a tuning fork was used at the singing meet here.
The Louisville writer told of the popularity of the old time singings and of the revival of interest in them over the entire state.

Judge Mince No Words

Circuit Judge Joe L. Price

jury for the October term Monday. Judge Price told conditions as they existed and openly invited cooperation

are good effects and bad effects in a action where a project as huge as the one at Gilbertville is being con-

that Judge Price hopes to eliminate, or at least curb, to the extent that Marshall

SCHOOL NOTES

By Rayburn Watkins

To Benton high school, the day of Friday the thirteenth was a remarkable success from several viewpoints.

While the students were enjoying taking advantage of the day of vacation at their own leisure, the members of the faculty were acquiring honors not only for themselves but the entire school and community as well.

At the meeting of the P. D. E. A. at Murray, principal J. Matt Sparkman was elected vice president of the organization for the coming year while Mr. Chambers was named one of the directors and Mr. Morgan, professor of history and social science studies, was elected chairman of the social science division.

These occurrences not only show what respect and high esteem our teachers have with the schools of the first district, but go to prove that we have one of the best faculties in this section of the country.

BREWERS HIGH

By LILLIAN COPE

After two weeks of absence all try to write some news. (Probably my nonsense and news to her wasn't missed much—the scholars in school, the outsiders would ask me was wrong—they miss my news.)

A large crowd attended the presentation in the school auditorium last Thursday.

Brewers Hi is a happy-go-lucky, quick and nice looking band, for the gay Seniors have their 1940 rings. Every one is working hard in this school year.

Brewers' basketball boys, "The Redmen," have their opening game with the Sharpe Green Devils Friday night of their Fair at Sharpe.

The grades are still working hard in preparing and constructing and other parts of their circus to be given October 25, in the school building. Miss Treva-than's rhythm band will furnish the musical entertainment for the circus.

Plans are being made for a Halloween Party to be given on Halloween night in the school auditorium. For further details WATCH OUT NEXT WEEK.

"STAR MAKER" APT CROSBY SCREEN ROLE

Bing Crosby, who is something of a "star maker" in his own right, what with the number of players who have advanced to stardom after appearing in his pictures, has a role which really fits him in Paramount's glorious singing cavalcade of show business, "The Star Maker."

When the picture is presented locally on Wednesday and Thursday at the Benton Theatre, Bing will be seen in the title role as a song writer and hooper who dreams of getting to the top in the entertainment world by making stars out of talented kids.

AURORA HIGH

By JAMES M. YORK

The students and teachers are very busy working—and making plans for our Fair, Friday, October 27. Although it will be the first fair we have had in several years we feel that it will be a great success. We take pride in the fact that through this method the work of this school and other schools of this section can be exhibited in order that the patrons may be drawn closer to the school.

An interesting program is planned for the morning starting at 9:00 o'clock. That afternoon there will be Field and Track Contest. A high school boys' softball game and a high school girls' softball game.

That night four one act plays will be presented by Hardin, Brewers, Faxon and Aurora. Best performance receives a Losing Cup. Come and see the biggest and best attraction of the Fair. Curtain raises at 8:00. Admission 15c and 25c.

We cordially invite every one to come and help us make our fair a success.

MAC & MAC NIGHT CLUB

The Place to Go for Clean Entertainment

Here we find the "high hat" society the most bohemian people. Men and women of different stations in life, all bent on one mission—a grand and glorious evening of bizarre and colorful entertainment. Here the food is excellent. That is somewhat of a revelation for a night club but betted food could not be found anywhere. The entire atmosphere is delightful. But let us meet the manager who is responsible for the wonderful evenings spent by the guests of this club. He is a host of hosts indeed. He has done everything under the sun to make our evening's enjoyment perfect and that he has succeeded is well evidenced by the large and appreciative patronage of this unusual establishment, located on the Old Cairo Road. By all means do not miss a visit there. It is well worth while.

Why not motor to Mac and Mac's Night Club. They conduct their establishment in such a manner that has elicited the praise of every one of their patrons and thus it is not surprising that this establishment has become a sort of institution.

Second Test of Hybrid Corn Is Declared Success

Test plots of hybrid corn grown this year on the farm of Roe Thomas again proves that it pays to grow hybrid, states H. E. Rothwell, county agent.

The hybrid produced 31½ bushels per acre while his own variety yielded only 20½ bushels per acre on hill land. At this rate, a two-acre field would produce fifty bushels more corn. This means that it is possible to reduce the corn acreage on a farm by growing hybrid thus subjecting less acres to erosion and giving more acres for pasture and meadows.

Hybrid corn matures at least 15 days earlier than other corn which means it may be harvested in the fall in time to seed the land to a cover crop. Thomas is also enrolled in Utopia Club of the county and has grown ¼ acre of yellow hybrid for seed.

RED CROSS ASKS EVERY ADULT IN STATE TO JOIN

Annual Rollcall from November 11 to November 30

The American Red Cross, in its 1939 Rollcall Campaign in Kentucky, has no fixed goal this year, but every effort is to be made to enroll every adult person in the state before the close of the rollcall, November 30.

Starting on Armistice Day this gives the workers in Kentucky nineteen days, or nearly three full weeks to put into effect the 1939 slogan: "Every Adult a Member."

Prospects for success are enhanced by recent work of the Red Cross in relieving distress due to floods, which was, as usual, first to come to the rescue in early 1937 along the Ohio River and first on the scene with help for the sufferers in the "flood" books in 1939.

Red Cross workers all over Kentucky are preparing for the campaign which is to give every adult in the state an opportunity to join the organization. By November 11 everything will be in readiness to start the actual work of "signing up" the people.

STONE BRUISES

Has the human race grown tougher, or have more of our generation put on shoes? Something is wrong, for I never hear now of stone bruises, fearful things that all boys and some girls of another time expected to have as a matter of course. My father was fond of telling how some older man who had moved to the county seat once remarked that no boy was worth killing if he had never had a stone bruise. One of the man's own sons heard the remark and went out at once and stamped on the sidewalk until he apparently was worth much, to judge by the size and ache of the bruise. Frankly, I do not know what a stone bruise is, but I know it can cause loss of trouble, even though it may be the badge of a regular fellow.

Some years ago doctors told us also that toe itch is athlete's foot. Back in the nineties no one ever heard of such a thing; to itch was just of toe itch, a disease that any person who went barefooted (and who didn't) could expect to have. Now all sorts of disinfectants and other things are used to stop the dread athlete's foot; then all that was necessary was to tie a yarn string around the toe affected, with a bit of fried-meat grease added for good measure.

Flaming advertisements tell us all sorts of things to do for itching or offensive feet. What we used to do is still a good remedy: we soaked our feet in borax water, the very thing that doctors advise us to do today. An ignorant cobbler once told me a valuable secret; he said that the perspiration of the feet reacts on the shoe leather to form an acid that hurts the skin; borax neutralizes this acid. How simple, but how few people can reason so well!

Another ailment that I rarely hear of now is the stumping off of toenails. Again this may be due to the prevalence of shoes, but it may imply also a greater care on the part of children than we once knew. People are always pointing with pride to something. Every genuine boy pointed with pride to the dirty rag that wrapped up a toe from which a nail had been stumped. It is amazing how easy it is to catch a toenail under something and rip it off. The pain is severe, but ordinary boys can stand it and have some enery left to boast about how little it hurt. My most vivid experience with toenails came when we were playing Hide and Seek once at a neighbor's. In order to reach "home," we had to run around a large house or through the passage, or "dog trot." I chose the latter way and failed to pick up my feet properly. That toe still looks somewhat like the fingers of people who fed old-fashioned sausage mill not wisely but too well.

Nails are still mashed, especially since we have so many kinds of machinery. But there is small fun in hearing some grown man tell-
